

AT&T is committed to supporting and investing in Iowa

AT&T and its employees offer time and resources to organizations working to make communities across Iowa better places to live.

More than $210,000 committed in Iowa in 2019

NOTABLE CONTRIBUTIONS IN THE LAST YEAR INCLUDE:

- $40,000 iJAG – Providing effective school dropout prevention and school to work solutions
- $40,000 Pursuit of Innovation – Empowering refugees and underserved youth to inspire and teach technology skills
- $30,000 Investing in my Future – Assisting African American youth and their families to prepare for education beyond high school
- $20,000 American Red Cross of Nebraska and Southwest Iowa – Supporting flood recovery efforts in Southwest Iowa
- $15,000 Kings Harvest – Supporting their foodbank in Davenport
- $12,250 Montgomery County Child Development Association – Helping to fund a new childcare center in Red Oak
- $10,000 Quad City Chamber of Commerce – Supporting flood recovery efforts in Quad City
- $10,000 Greater Des Moines Community Foundation – Supporting Governor Reynolds Statewide STEM Summit to connect workforce, STEM and workplace partnerships
- $8,400 Iowa State Fair Foundation – Promoting AT&T's It Can Wait campaign
- $3,500 Iowa Police Chiefs Association – Supporting their annual training conference
- $2,260 Healthy Birth Day – Providing education to expectant mothers to reduce the incidence of still birth

AT&T is also committed to providing good jobs and investing in its network to better serve the communities where we do business.

Approximately 695

Employees
Working in State
(as of September 30, 2019)

94.9%

of state
population
covered by mobile broadband

95.9%

of state
population
covered by LTE

Nearly $100 million

in Capital Expenditures over the past three years
in State (2016-2018)

More than $30
million

Taxes Paid in State (2018)